VINCE GIORDANO

New York native and multi-instrumentalist Vince Giordano and his big band, The Nighthawks, transport their audiences back to the 1920s and through the 1950s. The combination of authentic instruments, vintage '20s and '30s arrangements, guest vocalists, and world-class musicianship has made evening and festival concert events with Vince Giordano and the Nighthawks an unforgettable experience for thousands..

Giordano is the leading American specialist in recreating the hot jazz styles of the 1920s and 1930s. Giordano and his "Nighthawks" have performed at countless music festivals and concert dates and have been featured and provided music for dozens of movies, television shows, National Public Radio broadcasts and concerts in several countries. Giordano has produced and played on many CDs, including the Grammy Award Winning, BOARDWALK EMPIRE. He plays many instruments himself, and is an expert in the rarely heard bass saxophone. He has provided vintage orchestrations for many important films, especially those of director Woody Allen.
