"Lina's ethereal sound and exquisite attention to detail had me dancing in my seat and tearing up at the same time. A gorgeous vocal instrument with one of the best bands I have ever heard. She sings from her soul." - New York Cabaret Today

An Evening of TRAGEDY & HOPE features the music of the preeminent Greek composer Mikis Theodorakis. The music and lyrics, in both Hebrew and Greek, emerge out of deep cultural and historical currents. The Greek lyrics are poems by Kambanellis, who was interned in the Nazi concentration camp of Mauthausen in Austria. Theodorakis' musical aim was to serve the solemn poetry faithfully and his political aim was to memorialize the horrors of WWII. In Hebrew, the songs honor the 50th anniversary of Mauthausen. Lina Orfanos with her band do justice to the tragic and hopeful music in this 80 minute show.

"An artistic singer with solid technique... a beautiful voice with lyricism, sensitivity and interpretive perfection." - Mikis Theodorakis, composer

Acclaimed International mezzo-soprano vocalist sings in various languages: English, French, German, Greek, Hebrew, Italian, Spanish, and Turkish in classical, contemporary and jazz.
